• Medical expenses related to Covid-19

This policy will cover the user for reasonable usual and customary (UCR) medical costs and expenses which may be incurred consequent to the user's becoming infected with an agent of an epidemic/pandemic disease, while this policy is in force, but only in respect of In-hospital confinement provided that :

- For the purpose of this clause, Epidemic/Pandemic disease shall be defined as a general and widespread sudden outbreak of an acute and severe infectious disease caused by a Defined infectious disease pathogen (including all types of viruses, bacteria,...), that affects simultaneously numerous individuals all over the territory of destination country and that is officially declared as a new, sudden and acute epidemic/pandemic disease exclusively by the World Health Organization.
- Usual, reasonable and customary (UCR) is defined as treatment consistent with generally accepted standards of medical practice, procedures, and surgeries in destination country, in accordance with the Ministry of Health and the National Social Security guidelines for normal, usual & customary procedure and/or standard health sector practice.
- In Hospital confinement refers to any treatment that cannot be undergone under the Out-of-Hospital services and is recommended by a recognized treating physician. Such confinement must be medically indicated by the treating Physician to diagnose or treat an Epidemic/Pandemic disease covered under this Policy.
- ICU/Severe: these cases need admission to ICU with intubation and respirator, and the average length of stay is 25 days.
- Step Down/Moderate Cases: these cases need admission to intensive care with isolation, but no intubation and no respirator. Usually it needs 14 days average length of stay.
- Ward/ Mild cases: if admitted to hospital, needs isolation with an average length of stay of 2 days for any new policies issued by the Insurance Company for the new Policyholder and/or Insured

The "medical expenses" benefits provided under our plan can be claimed if COVID-19 is suspected or detected. In this particular context, "experimental" treatments, meaning medically-prescribed treatments being tested by doctors to treat this disease, will of course be covered as no cure has yet been found. This also applies to enforced quarantine in hospital.

The cover is granted:

- if the person got infected by corona virus during his stay at the stated country

The person should present PCR negative test upon arrival to the destination airport

• Arrangement and payment of emergency medical evacuation

The servicing company will arrange for the air and/or surface transportation, communication and all usual and customary ancillary services incurred in moving and transporting the Insured when in a Serious Medical Condition to the nearest hospital where appropriate medical care is available.

The servicing company reserves the right, to determine the location to which the Insured will be evacuated and the means or method by which such evacuation or repatriation will be carried out. In making such arrangements, the servicing company may consider all relevant circumstances including, but not limited to the Insured's medical condition, the degree of urgency, the Insured's fitness to travel, airport availability, weather conditions and travel distance in determining whether transportation will be provided by private medically equipped aircraft, helicopter, regular scheduled flight, rail or land vehicle.

• Arrangement and payment of emergency medical repatriation

The servicing company will arrange for the return of the Insured to the Home Country or Usual Country of Residence by air and/or surface transportation following an in-hospital admission for a covered case.

The servicing company reserves the right to decide the means or method by which such repatriation will be carried out having regard to all the assessed facts and circumstances of which the servicing company is aware at the relevant time, subject to The Insurance Company prior approval and only when judged necessary on medical and compassionate grounds.

• Arrangement and payment of transportation of mortal remains

The servicing company will arrange for transporting the Insured's mortal remains from the place of death to the Home Country if requested by a family member or legal representative, The servicing company will arrange for a local burial at the place of death, subject to The Insurance Company prior approval and only when judged necessary on medical and compassionate grounds.

- Quarantine Expenses

If the insured, after a positive PCR test, was sent to compulsory quarantine while the policy is in force, a fixed amount of cash will be provided to the insured as stated in the schedule of benefits for each complete 24 hours of quarantine up to a maximum of 14 days. The amount is paid on top of any of the insured's existing medical benefits. It is totally up to the insured to decide how to best spend the amount.

No benefits will be paid once the insured has left the quarantine outside his usual country of residence and if the treatment of the illness is not a direct or indirect consequence of Covid-19 disease.

Medical assistance

- Telephone medical advice

The servicing company will arrange for the provision of medical advice to the Insured over the telephone.

- Medical service provider referral

The servicing company shall provide to the Insured, upon request, the name, address, telephone number and, if available, office hours of physicians, hospitals, clinics, dentists and dental clinics (collectively "Medical Service Providers"). The servicing company shall not be responsible for providing medical diagnosis or treatment. Although the servicing company shall make such referrals, it cannot guarantee the quality of the Medical Service Providers and the final selection of a Medical Service Provider shall be the decision of the Insured. The servicing company, however, will exercise reasonable care and diligence in selecting the Medical Service Providers.

- Arrangement of hospital admission

If the medical condition of the Insured is of such gravity as to require hospitalization, the servicing company will assist such Insured in the hospital admission.

- Monitoring of medical condition during and after hospitalization

The servicing company will monitor the Insured's medical condition during and after hospitalization, subject to any and all obligations in respect of confidentiality and relevant authorization.

- Medical translation service

The servicing company will arrange for the provision of medical translation to the Insured over the telephone. Where the servicing company uses an external service provider to provide the translation service, the quality of the translator cannot be guaranteed. The Servicing Company will however exercise reasonable care and diligence in selecting such service providers.

- Delivery of essential medicine

Upon request from the Insured, the servicing company will arrange to deliver to the Insured essential medicine, drugs and medical supplies that are necessary for a Insured's care and/or treatment but which are not available at the Insured's location. The delivery of such medicine, drugs and medical supplies will be subject to the laws and regulations applicable locally. The servicing company will not pay for the costs of such medicine, drugs or medical supplies and any delivery costs thereof.

Travel assistance

- Trip Curtailment

The Insurance Company shall indemnify the insured, in the event, the insured has to necessarily and unavoidably cut his insured trip short as a result of any of the following:
